KEEPING CHRISTMAS by Henry Van Dyke

There is a better thing than the observance of Christmas Day, and that is, keeping Christmas.

Are you willing...

- ❖ To forget what you have done for other people, and to remember what other people have done for you;
- ❖ To ignore what the world owes you, and to think of what you owe the world;
- ❖ To put your rights in the background, and your duties in the middle distance, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground;
- ❖ To see that men and women are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy;
- ❖ To own up to the fact that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life;
- ❖ To close your book of complaints against the management of the universe, and look around you for a place where you can sow a few seeds of happiness.

Are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing...

- ❖ To stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children;
- ❖ To remember the weakness and loneliness of people growing old;
- ❖ To stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough;
- ❖ To bear in mind the things that other people have to bear in their hearts;
- ❖ To try to understand what those who live in the same home with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you;
- ❖ To trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you;
- ❖ To make a grave for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open-

Are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing...

- ❖ To believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—
- ❖ Stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death—
- ❖ And that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem two thousand years ago is the image and brightness of Eternal Love?

Then you can keep Christmas.

And if you can keep Christmas for one day, why not always?

But you can never keep it alone.

HAVE YOU BEEN ASKED TO BE A GODPARENT?

Parishes require certificates of sponsorship for Godparents and Confirmation Sponsors. Upon request, a Certificate of Eligibility will be issued only to those who are confirmed Catholics; registered in our Parish, regular participants at Mass, and validly married in the Church (if applicable). It is difficult to have to refuse anyone but it has had to be done at times. You should be registered with the Parish at least 6 months before we can issue you a certificate to become a Godparent or Sponsor. It is a privilege to be asked to take on this responsibility and to participate in the sacramental life of the Church.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Jerusalem is extolled as a place of glory and splendor because the Lord has come to His own city.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Paul tells the Ephesians that his special mission is to make the Gentiles co-heirs with the Jews in Christ — “members of the same body and sharers of the promise.”

Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Herod learns that Wise Men from the East are searching for the newly born Christ Child. He instructs them to find the Child and to report His whereabouts to him. The Wise Men follow a star to the place where Mary and Jesus are and offer the Child gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They do not return to Herod but follow another route to their own country.

THANK YOU FROM SR. ELSA

On behalf of our Social Outreach Ministry, thank you to all our parishioners who helped bring joy to needy families through our Advent Giving Tree. Together we succeeded in donating over 500 toys plus clothing to five different organizations: Catholic Charities, St. Agnes Church, St. Mary Church, Our Promise, and Bridges Outreach. Once again, Ferreira Construction Company sponsored families within our parish community by donating gifts (toys and clothing), Shop Rite cards and gift cards. Many private donations were also made for different needs.

Our parish bakers helped us provide cookies to the homebound families and our friends at Lounsberry Meadow. The mission of St. Vincent de Paul Parish is very alive in these charitable acts of caring.

May St. Vincent de Paul, our patron, continue to give us a heart directed toward the poor and help us to recognize Jesus in their thirst, their hunger, their loneliness and their misfortune.

Thank you all for your generosity.

Sr. Elsa Jeronimo, C.S.JB.
